PLAYHOUSE IN THE PARK RETURNS THIS FALL WHAT'S BUGGIN' GREG

By Darrah Cloud

Winner of the Macy's New Play Prize for Young Audiences

Saturday, October 8, 2011
7:30 pm

Evendale Recreation Center

Recommended for grades 3-6 and the young at heart! Fifth-grader Greg Samsa wakes up one morning to discover that he has turned into a giant cockroach. What will he tell his friends? How can he face his schoolmates? Can he still perform the lead in his school play? Will him mom ever hug him again? Or is he doomed to be a science exhibit for the rest of his life? This riotous comedy inspired by Frank Kafka and Shakespeare touches on issues of friendship, self-confidence, as well as body image and disability.

This fall, program favorites ballet, dance, and origami all return while we welcome new additions to our schedule. For fall we will be adding pottery classes, computer classes, drama & theater and more! Stay tuned. Check out our website at www.evendalearts.org for information.
