

VILLAGE OF EVENDALE

FEBRUARY, 2016

Dear Neighbors and Friends:

Happy Valentine's Day!

The Village is looking at replacing the signs on the municipal grounds including a possible electronic sign at the Glendale-Milford Road entrance into the complex. The new signs are badly needed. We are in the initial stages of choosing the new signs. I encourage Residents to voice their opinions to our Council members or myself.

The family of Bill Hardesty Jr. has donated an Oliver 70 Row Crop tractor to the Gorman Heritage Farm. According to Mr. Hardesty's son-in-law, Mike Chaney, this tractor was built around 1948. It was the biggest and best performing triangle-chassis model of its time, with a top speed of 25 mph. Mr. Hardesty was a life-long Sharonville resident and railroad man. Restoring Oliver tractors was a labor of love for him. You should certainly make it a point to stop by Gorman Farm to see the beautifully restored tractor and a piece of history.

Council has been working on acquiring land at the southwest corner at the Glendale-Milford and Plainfield Roads intersection. We will be installing a right turn lane for east bound traffic on Glendale-Milford Road on to Plainfield Road. It has been a time consuming process, but the paperwork is now completed. When the better weather returns we will begin construction. I think it will relieve the traffic congestion on Glendale-Milford Road.

Sincerely,

Mayor

Mayor Finnan
has open office hours on most:

Tuesdays
9:00am - Noon

Thursdays
9:00am - Noon

Getting to Know Your Neighbors

Jeff Albrinck is the current Vice Mayor of Evendale. He was first elected in 2001 and is now beginning his fourth, four-year term on council. Although Jeff never considered himself political, he has enjoyed contributing to making Evendale an incredible place to live and work.

Jeff, and his wife Natalie, have been Evendale residents for the past 19 years, raising their three daughters Emily (24), Kelsey (22) and Ashley (19). An attorney for 28 years, he is currently a partner at Rendigs, Fry Kiely & Dennis where he focuses his practice on estate and wealth succession planning, business organization and franchise law.

In his spare time, he enjoys spending time with his family, all things sports (unfortunately, now more as a spectator than a participant), golf and working out with the 5:00 am workout crew at the Recreation Center.

If you ever have any questions for Jeff, feel free to call him at (513) 289-8190

GORMAN HERITAGE FARM

So, what happens on the Farm in the winter? Planning for spring crops and animal babies, fun classes for adults and kids, kids story hours, snowy hikes and selling delicious farm raised pork, beef and eggs. We hope you will visit soon. Evendale residents get free admission to the Farm; simply show your ID at the front desk of the Interpretive Center. Consider becoming a Member of the Farm and receive discounts on classes and kid's summer camp, invitations to Members Only events and activities, free admission to the Sunflower Festival and all-you-can-cut sunflowers beginning the day after the Festival. Information about all this and more can be found on our new and improved website, www.gormanfarm.org.

SERVICE DEPARTMENT

The Service Department is now accepting applications for Seasonal workers.

Applications can be found online on the Village web site or picked up at the Service or Administration Departments. All applicants must be at least 18 years of age. If you have questions, please call Paula at 513-563-4338.

CULTURAL ARTS CENTER

C.F. PAYNE'S ILLUSTRATED ADVENTURES OF TOM SAWYER ARTWORK EXHIBIT

America's most famous illustrator, C.F. Payne, will be featured at the Evendale Cultural Arts Center for a book signing and art show from February 19-21. Payne, who has illustrated more covers for Time magazine than any artist in the United States, has inked a remarkably beautiful version of the Mark Twain classic, The Adventures of Tom Sawyer. Many of the models used in the book are residents of Evendale. ECAC staff provided historical clothing and props for the models during preproduction. Both the book and the artwork from the book will be on sale. Payne, a native Cincinnati and former Evendale resident is well-remembered for having illustrated the back cover for Reader's Digest for many years.

Opening Night Reception, Friday, February 19, 6-9 pm
Exhibit Hours: February 20 & 21, 12- 4 pm

Artventure Tour

Taft Art Museum's "Daubigny, Monet, Van Gogh: Impressions of Landscape"

Date: Wednesday, February 24

Times: 10:30 am-2:00 pm

Tuition: $40 per person includes tour, lunch, and transportation

Registration deadline: February 17

To Register: 563.2247

In the 1850s and 1860s, Daubigny anticipated and helped shape Impressionism by routinely painting outdoors to capture qualities of light and atmosphere, by launching a floating studio boat on the French rivers, and by exhibiting sketch-like works that critics assailed as "mere impressions." He became a mentor, colleague, and friend to the Impressionists, especially Claude Monet and Camille Pissarro. Approximately 42 masterpieces by Daubigny represent the artist's greatest achievements, including both small easel paintings painted outdoors and grand-scale exhibition pieces completed in the studio. A selection of about 16 Impressionist and Post-Impressionist paintings by Monet and Vincent Van Gogh (with a few by Pissarro) reveal Daubigny's influence.
