

August 2015

Dear Neighbors and Friends,

The political season is upon us and the Administrative Office has received a number of calls regarding political signs. If you are considering placing political sign(s) on your property, please remember that the sign(s) must be placed ten feet back, have a maximum sign size of 16 square feet, and if you want to put up more than one sign, the cumulative sign area must be limited to 32 square feet.

I hope everyone will take advantage of the Chamber of Commerce's Meet the Candidate Night on October 22nd. This is a very important election in that you will not only be electing a new Mayor but also three Council Persons. The Meet the Candidate Night is a wonderful opportunity for you evaluate the candidates and it will help you make an informed decision in voting for the people who will be leading Evendale for the next four years. We will have additional information in next month's newsletter.

Gorman Heritage Farm has a new Executive Director. Her name is Tricia Watts. She comes to the farm with a wealth of nonprofit knowledge as well as years of experience in the private sector. Tricia's experience in nonprofit leadership and fundraising will help the farm expand the farm's current programs and provide additional educational opportunities for all ages. Please take the time to visit the Farm to welcome her and see all that is happening at the Farm this summer.

Evendale had the privilege of hosting the NSSL Swim Championships this year on July 20th and 21st. The swim parents and numerous Evendale employees worked countless hours to make this event successful. They did an incredible job. The Evendale Eagles were again crowned the Champions of the large swim team division. Congratulations to all the swimmers and their parents.

For a better and better Evendale...

Your Mayor,
Don Apking

Our Summer Camps have entertained and enlightened more than 175 children so far this summer. Camps run through mid-August and some still have availability. Summer Tours are also available. They are fun and educational for all ages.

The Farm have several new residents – three cows, five adorable pigs and a babydoll southdown sheep. Come and visit all the animals we have and stop by the Interpretive Center to enter your suggestion in our "Name the Sheep" contest. While you at the Interpretive Center, check out Evendale's resident Gene Powell new book, "Ashlyn Grows...Cherry Tomatoes".

PLOTTING A PERFECT COURSE FOR COLLEGE PLANNING

Wednesday, September 30

7:00 – 8:30 pm Free! Everyone welcome.

It's no secret that college continues to be one of the most expensive endeavors many families will ever tackle. It's also no secret that more than half of all students who begin going to college will not graduate in 4 years. Your mission is simple: Know what to do as well as when and how to do each task.

Join us for an informative presentation by Todd Kelly, co-founder of a nationally recognized College Planning training system and partner in Cincinnati's most complete college planning organization. During this one hour presentation, Todd will discuss factors related to both ACADEMIC and FINANCIAL arenas that you must understand and address if you expect to achieve the ultimate college planning goal:

Sending your son or daughter to the RIGHT school at the RIGHT price in the SHORTEST amount of time with the LOWEST out of pocket expense.

As a bonus, every attending family will receive a scholarship valued at $500 from more than 340 private colleges/universities in the country (with more than 20 of them in OHIO!) along with an opportunity to double that amount AT NO COST.

CHAIR VOLLEYBALL

Practices and games on Tuesdays and Thursdays. This active group's laughter can be heard throughout the building. Join one of our teams for some exercise, good times . . . laughter guaranteed!
