

October 2013

Dear Neighbors and Friends,

The Evendale Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring a “Meet the Candidates Night” on Wednesday, October 9th, 6:30 pm – 9:00 pm at Raffel’s Catering. Please check out the Chamber’s insert in this newsletter for more information and learn more about the candidates.

October 6 – 12 is National Fire Prevention Week. Our Fire Department will be visiting the schools to discuss safety tips on reducing the risks of kitchen fires. If you would like more information or would like the Fire Department to speak to your group about fire safety, contact the Fire Department at 563-2248.

Good things are happening in Evendale. You may have noticed some changes at Village Crossings. Sichuan Chili Chinese Restaurant opened their doors in September. They are profiled in the Business of the Month section on the last page of this newsletter. The CAM grocery store just finished a major renovation that doubled their previous store size. There are also improvements at JoAnn Fabric to update their store.

Congratulations to longtime resident Ken Puthoff who was named the 2013 Ohio Parks and Recreation Association (OPRA) Youth Sports Coach of the Year. For the past ten years, Ken has coached numerous soccer and basketball teams. Thank you Ken for all your hard work, time, and encouragement you have generously given to the kids and families of Evendale.

Just a reminder, you can pick up your leaf bags every Saturday between 9:00 am - 1:00 pm through October 27th at the Service Department.

For a better and better Evendale...

Your Mayor,
Don Apking

SPECIAL EVENTS

College Planning Relief Workshop

Wednesday, October 16

7:00 – 8:30 pm

Free!

Learn specific keys to make college more affordable.

Steps to maximize your aid eligibility
Understanding expected family contribution
Cost of attendance, FAFSA and the CSS Profile
Avoiding errant assumptions about aid qualification
Developing best practices for school selection
Comparing public vs. private; know the facts
College and retirement; you can do both!

"We were introduced to Todd Kelly, a Financial Advisor with Summit, at a seminar you hosted at the Rec Center in 2010. We attended to learn what other strategies we might need to take since we had 2 kids in college and had 3 more, not far behind. While we had attended other seminars/ lectures that offered similar insights, Summit's, no pressure, information awareness approach was appreciated. Todd guided us through some techniques to help us gain access to as much "free money" as possible and if we had a bit more time, would have possibly had even a better outcome. Please continue to host the Summit Financial Group to give other Evendale families the opportunity to learn about college planning. Tell them that the sooner they start the hunt, the better for kids in high school!" ~ Susan Spraul, Evendale Resident and mother of five.
