Council Committee August 2019 Report – Trail Planning and Mill Creek Restoration Projects

Michele Gottschlich

- Norfolk Southern Sharon Creek land acquisition negotiations on hold due to legal dispute between Sharonville and Norfolk involving Enterprise Cars zoning. Court date September 18; however, Sharonville hopes to meet with railroad before that date.
- The next Connecting Active Communities Coalition (CACC) meeting is Wednesday, August 28 from 3-5 at the Sharon Woods Training Center. The public is invited to attend the meeting and listen to Elizabeth Connor, Coordinator of the Great Miami Riverway, speak about the 99 miles of river and paved trails that connect many communities in the Great Miami Watershed. During Ms. Connor's presentation entitled "Destination Development in the Great Miami Riverway", she will discuss the history and strategic planning, use of volunteers, kayak kiosks, relationship to the Conservancy District and funding strategies – all relevant to CACC's ongoing planning efforts in northern Hamilton County.
- Mill Creek Collaborative is exploring feasibility of requesting funding from State Capital budget for trails.
