

November, 2012

Dear Neighbors and Friends:

Homer and Evelyn Besco have lived on Heathercrest Circle for 50 years. On December 1st, they will be celebrating their 67th wedding anniversary. They have a daughter Anna (McDaniel) and son Tom. They are the proud grandparents of Jeff and Brian McDaniel, Stephanie Carll, Michael Besco, and Sarah Laake and great-grandparents to seven, with the eighth due in the spring. I would like to congratulate them on reaching this extraordinary milestone and may they have many more.

Work is continuing on our traffic signals. Eventually all of the new signals will be equipped with vehicle camera detection systems. They are not RED LIGHT CAMERAS. These cameras will monitor the traffic flow and will regulate the timing of the signals. We hope this new system will ease the traffic congestion along Reading and Glendale-Milford Roads.

The Fire Chief would like to remind everyone to take some precautionary measures for the upcoming holidays. He has suggested that you have your furnace inspected prior to turning it on and to have all fireplaces inspected and/or cleaned on a regular basis. Also be mindful of open flames from candles and fire places in proximity to live Christmas trees and keep your tree well watered. A small amount of prevention now can make for a safe holiday season.

For a better and better Evendale...
Your Mayor,
Don Apking

Business of the Month

White Castle is a family-owned business based in Columbus, Ohio that owns and operates more than 400 restaurants in 12 states. The company was founded in Wichita, Kansas in 1921 and became America's first fast-food hamburger chain. White Castle is proud of their 48 years involvement with Evendale. The company is excited about the recent 12,000 square foot expansion to the bakery on Exon Avenue. The expansion allowed them to modernize their equipment while minimizing downtime and thus the impact on their customers and team members. White Castle's new loyalty program, Craver Nation, was launched in May.
