Dear Neighbors and Friends:

On June 18th we had the official ground breaking ceremony for our first business in the AeroHub development along Glendale-Milford Road, across from St. Rita’s School. The Modal Shop (TMS) is building a 40,000 square foot building with an option to add two 30,000 square foot additions. TMS make high tech vibration testing equipment. We foresee this to be the first of many new businesses to come to AeroHub.

On July 25th, Lt. Governor, John Husted, will be in Evendale to tour the AeroHub project. Accompanying him will be retired Air Force Colonel Joseph E. Zeis Jr., the Governor’s Aerospace & Defense Consultant and J.P. Nausef, the new President and Chief Investment Officer of JobsOhio, the economic development arm of Ohio. We are seeking funding for the continuation of AeroHub Boulevard north of Glendale-Milford Road.

On another note, the ACLU is on Mayor’s Courts for supposedly being big profit making engines for their communities. In Evendale, this is demonstrably false. Most tickets issued by the police department are for speeding and assured clear distance ahead (rear-end) violations. The fine for these citations is $99.00 for which the Village receives $60.00 with $10.00 of that going to the Mayor’s Court Computer Fund and $39.00 going to the state. In 2018, we took in $146,492.00. Out of that we paid expenses for the clerk, the magistrate (I don’t do Mayor’s Court), the prosecutor and other occasional services such as an interpreter and a Public Defender. We also have two police officers assigned for each bi-monthly session. The estimated cost for Mayor’s Court in 2018 was $101,558.00 and as you can see, it is not a big profit maker.

Why do we have a Mayor’s Court? First of all, convenience. Our sessions are in the evenings while Municipal Courts start at 9:00 a.m. Our police, victims, and witnesses do not have to travel downtown and nor do the defendants. And, parking is free.

I have believed in Mayor’s Courts for a long time. They hear misdemeanor and traffic cases that don’t require big legal events. If an individual is not satisfied with the Magistrate’s decision, they can appeal it to the Municipal Court and that doesn’t happen very often. Today, many of our cases are thefts (shoplifting) cases that are not especially difficult to adjudicate. The police officers understand which cases, such as the driving under the influence offenses, should go to Municipal Court.

Finally, just imagine how many new Municipal Judges (and staff) would be necessary to handle the load if communities collectively started sending all the cases downtown. Your tax dollars to fund this endeavor would inevitably rise.

Sincerely,

Dick Goman
Your Mayor
